SERVICE LEARNING (SVLN)

SVLN-201 Service Learning (1 Credit)
Offers students an opportunity to apply their academic learning in a community service setting. The one credit is tied specifically to an academic course taken during the semester. Students must complete 25 hours of service, participate in regular class reflection periods, and complete a final project. The volunteer service is determined by the student from a list approved by the course instructor and SVLN coordinator. Prerequisites: Specific course prerequisites and corequisites are determined by participating academic departments. Contact the service learning coordinator for details and registration. One credit course may be taken up to three times for a total of 3 credits. Pass/No Pass grade.
