COMMUNITY-BASED JUSTICE AND CHANGE MAKING CERTIFICATE

This interdisciplinary certificate provides foundational knowledge in theories of justice and ways to advocate for change. Students will develop skills in communication, empathy, collaboration, and critical thinking.

This certificate supports student readiness to be active and engaged citizens around issues of social justice and may be applied in the workforce to advocate for change in institutions and the creation of equitable and just workspaces.

Requirements for Certificate in Community-Based Justice and Change Making

Code	Title	Credits
Select three credits of the following:		3
HS-245	The Social Determinants of Health-Local Perspectives
KIN-245	The Social Determinants of Health - Local Perspectives
SOC-245	The Social Determinants of Health: Local Perspectives
JDG-230	Topics in Community Based Justice and Change Making	3
SWK-201	Introduction to Social Work	3
Total Credits		9